

Welcome to Madhu's at The Grove

Madhu's at The Grove stands as a paragon of fine Indian cuisine, boasting a rich legacy spanning four decades as a family-operated establishment. The restaurant's culinary repertoire is a harmonious blend of time-honoured family recipes and gourmet Punjabi fare, infused with a distinctive Kenyan influence a testament to the Anand family's culinary heritage now in its fourth generation.

The gastronomic offerings at Madhu's encompass an array of regional specialties from the Indian subcontinent, alongside innovative creations that push the boundaries of traditional Indian cuisine. This culinary journey traces its origins to Nairobi, where the esteemed Brilliant Hotel was founded by Bishan Das Anand. Inspired by their grandfather's legacy, Sanjay and Sanjeev Anand, at the remarkably young ages of 17 and 16 respectively, established Madhu's Brilliant in 1980. The moniker "Madhu's" pays homage to their father, Jagdish Kumar Anand.

Beyond its acclaimed restaurant, Madhu's has cultivated a distinguished catering division, renowned for its exceptional service at weddings, bespoke corporate functions, and high-profile events. Their clientele includes Prime Ministers, members of the Royal Family, celebrities, and other notable dignitaries. Madhu's holds the distinction of being the first Asian caterer to serve at prestigious venues such as the House of Commons, Windsor Castle, and Buckingham Palace, further cementing its status as a leader in the culinary world.
